

Hospitality & Catering Bulletin: June 2010

Changes to vocational qualifications and Apprenticeship Frameworks

This bulletin is designed to give you up-to-date information about the hospitality and catering qualifications that will be migrated on to the QCF. Additional information will be available over the coming weeks and these bulletins will be updated accordingly. The information will also be posted on our website. Links to the relevant pages are included at the end of this bulletin.

We are currently working with People 1st, the Sector Skills Council for Hospitality, Leisure, Travel and Tourism, to ensure that all of our hospitality and catering qualifications are accredited on the QCF before 1 August 2010. The tables below indicate the latest details regarding the transfer of qualifications on to the QCF for this sector.

Much of the content covered in the NVQs has remained the same. However, there have been new units added to some of the Hospitality and Catering NVQs to increase flexibility and choice for learners. There are also some additional qualifications in new areas, such as Patisserie and Confectionary, and Asian and Oriental Cooking, and a new role identified for Kitchen Services staff.

If you take the NVQ as part of the Apprenticeship, you will be required to take a new unit on Employee Rights and Responsibilities too (note that this is not necessary if you take the NVQ as a stand-alone qualification).

The Technical Certificates/knowledge qualifications remain unchanged in content. They will be extended on the QCF until 31 July 2011.

The NVQ replacement qualifications have been submitted to Ofqual for accreditation. The Level 3 Professional Cookery qualifications are accredited already and we expect the others to be accredited in the next few days.

Timescales

The NQF qualifications below are all being replaced with QCF qualifications. You may register learners for the NQF versions of these qualifications until 31 July 2010.

From 1 August 2010, all new registrations must be for the QCF versions.

We have submitted the NVQs for accreditation in April 2010.
