November 18th

Dear Top Trip Travel,

We would be grateful if you could arrange the travel to our daughter's home in Exeter on Friday 8th December. We are both 82 and find it difficult to organise things over the telephone because we are both quite deaf.

We will want to travel home during the afternoon of Sunday 10th December. We prefer to travel by rail but changing trains is a problem as my husband uses a wheelchair. Could you check that the train has good disabled access and somewhere to buy a cup of tea and a sandwich?

If we arrive in Exeter between 3.30pm and 5.00pm our son-in-law can pick us up on his way from work. Could you also book a table for four in the Exeter Lion restaurant on Saturday night at 8.30pm? It is a surprise for my daughter's birthday. Could you check that there are vegetarian dishes on the menu before you make a reservation?

Thank you very much for your help. I will collect the tickets on Saturday morning (25th November).

Many thanks
Isabella Oldrini

Read the text below.

Tomorrow, cyclist John Brown is returning to the UK after completing an epic three-year journey around the world. The final leg of Mr Brown's solo journey will be a cross-channel ferry from France, after a bike ride that took him 45,000 miles across five continents and through 60 countries.

His journey started in August 2001 in Settle, North Yorkshire and took him through Europe and the Middle East and crossing Ethiopia, Zimbabwe and Sudan, where temperatures reached 45C. From Cape Town he took a boat across to South America.

Along the way, John travelled through several countries, which were described as 'high risk zones' by the British Foreign Office, but he always got a warm welcome. His favourite countries were South Africa, Sudan, Russia, Georgia, Colombia and the USA. He returned to Europe yesterday from Canada.

John Brown's journey, which was funded by a private donor, has raised more than £150,000 from business sponsors for the Yorkshire charity World Youth in Need, which supports young people orphaned or abandoned by war, AIDS or poverty.

Speaking from the family home in Settle today, his mother Jenny Brown said, "It's a fantastic achievement. I was more concerned about John being homeless for three years than the dangers of cycling. You can fall off your bike in Settle," she said. "He will be home tomorrow and I am over the moon. It will be the first time we've seen him since he left." Mrs Brown said "We thought about visiting him during his journey, but I wasn't sure I could keep a straight face and wave him off to another jungle or desert without sitting down and crying".

John said, "I feel excited, nervous and rather sad that it is nearly done and I have to remind myself that the end of the ride does not mean the end of my life."

Text 5

Dear Ana,
 We are having a really lovely time here - the sun has been shining every day, so we have spent a lot of time on the beach. Yesterday we went on a tour of the vineyards and bought three cases of wine!

Lots of love, Catarina.
