

GCSE 2009 Italian

How might your candidates' journey through the new GCSE 2009 Italian differ to that taken through the old specification?

Modular - Resits - Terminal requirement -	greater flexibility in sitting exams when they are ready and opportunities to improve at a later stage only one resit opportunity for each unit is available
Uniform Mark Scale -	at least 40% of the entire GCSE must be completed at the end of the course - this means for GCSE Italian full course (2IN01) at least two units must be taken in the final examination session. For the short course (3IN0S/3IN0W) only one unit must be taken when certification is requested. candidates' best marks are stored for aggregation at the end of the course, ensuring their best performance is awarded, however the scores for the units being used to satisfy the terminal rule will be used even if they are lower than those held in the bank
The GCSE standard -	all units are assessed at the GCSE standard in whichever exam series they are offered

Below are examples of how your candidates' experience of the new specification might differ to that of the old

Please note: these examples are not a recommendation of how the course should be sat or the number of hours required to deliver the course but an example of one of the ways that the qualification may be approached. There may be alternative ways to approach the qualification.

Old GCSE Italian (1237)

Paper 1: Listening and Responding		25	Exam	100	Overall grade
